MAKING IT UP AS ONE GOES ALONG

[Edited: 08.00 am (UK-Time), 13 April 2025]

Words are just descriptive-expressions that we have inherited from past generations of human beings. They are open to different interpretations as suits a particular raison d'être. When one is living in the freedom of satya-advaita yoga, one necessarily makes up new words as one goes along or adapts old words to meet a particular requirement in terms of what one is trying to express. It is in this context that my books are to be read and the readers have to form their own opinions on whether I have been crystal clear on what I have thought about relating to my experiences of life over the past 27 years in particular but which derives from my Hindu upbringing in India. I am of course open to providing any clarifications needed on the basis of my actions at any particular point in time and how I have expressed these in the 380 eBooks that I have so far written in the series under the theme, 'The Allurement of Reality' available here ( <https://www.theallurementofrealityinreview.com/shop>). But I hope that no such clarifications would be necessary or me be called upon to answer: I wish to let my books do the talking, hence I am editing this post now that I have some free time. This is because I am not a very good speaker in public, and even in the creation of Videos that I attempted over the past year to develop my websites. I am good at writing. For I allow truth to just flow into my mind at the appropriate time and this creates the works that I have been producing.

So in what context am I using the words Samadhi and Maha-Samadhi. I wish to make it clear at this point in time. For me Samadhi seemingly started on completion of my Book Truth-accommodation (Satya-advaita) and I started writing the book 'Post-realisation Musings'. They were semi-conscious assessment of the knowledge that I had gained and the missing data that I needed to be searched for still in order for me to arrive at a comprehension on the Conception of Reality, the first book under the theme 'The Allurement of Reality' that I had started writing in 2004 when I came out of the mental hospital for the first time. It grew and grew into what it the Realisation is today. I had tried to consider numerous times during these years that I had total Realisation, even my elder sister in India had pointed to this in one of her utterances to me, but it turned out not to be the case. When can Realisation be complete when one does not know what there is to Realise. It had to be awaited with patience. And I formulated a plan of Self-discovery to try and get to it. This was to have a framework where I hypothesised that everything in the universe is pre-ordained and pre-orchestrated, so there was God having set the universe in motion in a particular manner; the best bhakti that I could approach God with was to discover my own fate within the Grand Design, and this was latterly over the period 2020 or so done through losing all attachments, and acting nonchalantly, spontaneously and unpremeditatedly in all my moment by moment actions as the only karma that I would engage in that could with certainty be then described as sanatan dharma, that is to say karma in sanatan dharma.

Maha Samadhi is total Realisation when one does stop one's karma in sanatan dharma and lives in Yoga-ananda, the yogadaan emanating from one's dedication to the comprehensive approach to yoga.

When I seemed to be surviving the persecution that was vitriolic against me in conducting myself in this manner I was picking up evidence of Dharma Rakshati Rakshita as being the eternal law of the universe, and this has not changed at the moment that I first wrote this posted account at 10.37 am on the 12 of October 2021.

I am in Maha-Samadhi now.

I am a one-man band developing knowledge through a process that I have termed satya-advaita yoga which means the yoga of oneness with truth (truth-accommodation). I write only factual things And in it I incorporate my interactions with people I encounter in my daily life as a continuous autobiography such that it always remains a yogic process in The Allurement of Reality. The yoga so performed generates pristine knowledge so that my mind is always striving for liberation from bandages through this process. I have always been a writer since I went into the scientific arena and it started from there as I felt that God had come into my life to guide me.(Edited)

Hello, hope you are doing well. Allow me to introduce myself again for this invitation to connect may have surprised you.

I feel after 27 years of struggling unsuccessfully for justice in the United Kingdom and equally for democratic representation through the four major parties that there is much improvement necessary for the government of the nation. I have accordingly taken my experiences one step further and created a mission named as the Movement of Conservative Libertarians (MCL) that has the objective of making the country prosper under a Conservative Libertarian Society the ethos of which is summarised as truth, justice and democracy. Our Movement specifies that we should not harp on about the past history but look forward to a good future through this radical approach to the organisation of society.

Hello Ethan, I am sorry that the Petition at the House of Commons started in December 2024 for a written Constitution in the United Kingdom that still has 6-8 weeks to officially known the result of is failing in its attempt to secure the required signatures, and you will know that Reform UK did not support it in the initial stages of the preparation of the Petition last June onwards. '. I have not had any substantive replies from you or Rizvi Rawoof in the past 48 hours on these matters, so am proceeding with the Movement of Conservative Libertarians on which you may find the attached FAQ's of democratic interest: FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS ABOUT THE MOVEMENT OF CONSERVATIVE LIBERTARIANS. Ethan Pugh, I was right Reform UK is fundamentally Satan-evil as demonstrated by my experiences as a Member and most notably the recent correspondence, such as this attached one that did not receive an acknowledgement except for the state authorities further terrorising me with Phone call to our landline within a minute after I sent the email to Rizvi Rawoof.

Mr Carlos, a couple of days as I found that I had not been making any progress with the Movement for Conservative Libertarians

I had withdrawn all outstanding invitations to connect, so where from have you found this notification? Am I being trolled by you or Spammed that should be notified for a proper and thorough investigation?

Hasnae, I felt this morning that I should elaborate on what was contained in our religion, as follows: Welcome Pack from the Conservative Libertarians

Dear Friend

1. Conservative Libertarians are what it says on the tin: we conserve as libertarians because we are truthful in all honesty in the sight of God Sri Krishna-Durga who as Creator of the Universe and a Personal God residing within our atman and external to our body gives us the motivation to chart our truth-path in karma in sanatan dharma. This is to say we dedicate all our work to the Lotus feet of our God having learnt all there is to learn in what Hindus call Bhagawan-Prapti; this is to say that we have captured God within us such that all our work that continues incessantly are perfect and do not need any thoughts to drive us forwards as motivations. We thus act instantly, spontaneously, nonchalantly, and unpremeditatedly as Vishista-advaitists, the term denoting that we have captured God within our hearts. It gives us in our resting-state great happiness/satisfaction for which there is a Hindu term of 'ananda': that is the treasure awaiting the Conservative Libertarians who have gone through the initiation process. We do not pray: we worship God and we catch up with all our correspondence as vishista-advaitists

2. If you wish to find out more, please let me know. Our Membership websites are at:

Hello, hope you are doing well. Allow me to introduce myself for this invitation must have surprised you this morning.

The reason that I sent out randomly 200 odd invitations to make connections with is because I feel after 27 years of struggling for justice in the United Kingdom and political representation through the four major parties that much improvement is needed in the government of the nation. I have accordingly taken my experiences one step further and created a Movement named as Conservative Libertarians that has the objective of making the country prosper under a Conservative Libertarian Society. I think we need not harp on about the past but look forward to a good future through this radical approach to the organisation of society. If you wish to find out more, please let me know. I am a one-man band developing knowledge through a process that I have termed satya-advaita yoga which means the yoga of oneness with truth (truth-accommodation). I write only factual things And in it I incorporate my interactions with people I encounter in my daily life as a continuous autobiography such that it always remains a yogic process in The Allurement of Reality. The yoga so performed generates pristine knowledge so that my mind is always striving for liberation from oandages through this process. I have always been a writer since I went into the scientific arena and it started from there as I felt that God had come into my life to guide me.(Edited)

I definitely believe that you are on the right track so far as signing up the Conservative Libertarian on the PEF online database, allows for others to be informed about your organisation's goals and it is a good start in building the image and campaigning.

I am making significant progress towards getting nuts and bolts of the Movement of Conservative Libertarians in place but am stuck at the point of Registering The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) with the Electoral Commission for which I need an Official who can be named in the Form attached as the Treasurer of the Party and another official who can be named as the Nominating Officer for the Party: details as attached: From The Electoral Commission for TCLP-UK's Registration - Party Officials27April2025.docx. Would you be willing to fulfill either of these two roles for the Party, or know someone interested in the Constitution of the TCLP-UK to undertake this action?

Application to register a political party in Great Britain

Abort application

All fields marked with a red asterisk must be completed.

Please note that there must be a minimum of two registered officers of the party.

Also, all the party officers must log in with their user accounts confirming their association with the party before the registration application can be submitted.

Party officers

The official roles of a political party are:

- The Party Leader – who leads the party
- The Party Treasurer – who will be responsible for your party's compliance with the financial rules
- The Nominating Officer – who will authorise candidates to stand for election and use the party name on ballot papers
- Campaigns officer (optional) – who carries out the treasurer's responsibilities for party spending at elections.

One person can take on one or more of the roles above, but the party must register at least two different people as party officers. If one person holds all the official roles, then the party must register someone as an additional officer.

Details of each of your party's officers should be entered using the "Add officer" button below. The official role(s) can then be assigned in the "Officer roles" section.

If you also wish to register separate accounting unit officers then please use the "Accounting units" screen

Party officers

The official roles of a political party are:

- The Party Leader – who leads the party
- The Party Treasurer – who will be responsible for your party's compliance with the financial rules
- The Nominating Officer – who will authorise candidates to stand for election and use the party name on ballot papers
- Campaigns officer (optional) – who carries out the treasurer's responsibilities for party spending at elections.

One person can take on one or more of the roles above, but the party must register at least two different people as party officers. If one person holds all the official roles, then the party must register someone as an additional officer.

Details of each of your party's officers should be entered using the "Add officer" button below. The official role(s) can then be assigned in the "Officer roles" section.

If you also wish to register separate accounting unit officers then please use the "Accounting units" screen

I am making significant progress towards getting nuts and bolts of the Movement of Conservative Libertarians in place but am stuck at the point of Registering The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) with the Electoral Commission for which I need an Official who can be named in the Form attached as the Treasurer of the Party and another official who can be named as the Nominating Officer for the Party: details as attached: From The Electoral Commission for TCLP-UK's Registration - Party Officials27April2025.docx. Would you be willing to fulfil either of these two roles for the Party, or know someone interested in the Constitution of the TCLP-UK to undertake this action?

The screenshot shows the 'Registration' page of the Electoral Commission website. The user is logged in as 'TCLP-UK'. The current entity is 'The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (GB)'. The page title is 'Application to register a political party in Great Britain'. There is an 'Abort application' button. A navigation menu includes links for 'Party details', 'Party officers', 'Officer roles', 'Accounting units', 'Declaration of assets and liabilities', 'Declarations', and 'Submit'. A sidebar on the left lists various options like 'Home', 'My account', 'Political parties', 'The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (GB)', 'Continue registration', 'Register party in NI', 'Manage users', 'Register new', 'Third parties (Non-party campaigners)', 'Permitted participants (Referendum campaigners)', and 'Regulated donees'. The main content area explains that all fields marked with a red asterisk must be completed and that there must be a minimum of two registered officers. It also states that all party officers must log in with their user accounts. The 'Party officers' section lists the official roles: Party Leader, Party Treasurer, Nominating Officer, and Campaigning officer (optional). It notes that one person can take on one or more roles, but at least two different people must be registered as party officers. Details of each officer should be entered using the 'Add officer' button. If separate accounting unit officers are registered, the 'Accounting units' screen should be used. At the bottom, there is a table with columns for 'Name' and 'Email'. The table contains one entry: Shantanu Panigrahi, shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com, with a 'View' link. There is an 'Add officer' button below the table. A footer bar contains links for 'Previous', '20%', and 'Next', along with copyright information and a link to 'Get Adobe Reader'.

There is a sidebar menu on the left with options like 'Home', 'My account', 'Political parties', 'The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (GB)', 'Continue registration', 'Register party in NI', 'Manage users', 'Register new', 'Third parties (Non-party campaigners)', 'Permitted participants (Referendum campaigners)', and 'Regulated donees'. The main content area has a navigation bar with links: 'Party details', 'Party officers', 'Officer roles', 'Accounting units', 'Declaration of assets and liabilities', 'Declarations', and 'Submit'. Below this, there is a section for 'Party officers' which lists the official roles of a political party: The Party Leader, The Party Treasurer, The Nominating Officer, and Campaigns officer (optional). It also provides instructions on how to register officers and a table to add officers. The table has columns for 'Name' and 'Email'. The user 'Shantanu Panigrahi' is listed with email 'shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com'. There is a 'View' link next to the email. At the bottom, there is a 'Previous' button, a progress bar showing '20%', and a 'Next' button. The footer contains copyright information and a link to 'Get Adobe Reader'.

I am making significant progress towards getting nuts and bolts of the Movement of Conservative Libertarians in place but am stuck at the point of Registering The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) with the Electoral Commission for which I need an Official who can be named in the Form attached as the Treasurer of the Party and another official who can be named as the Nominating Officer for the Party: details as attached: From The Electoral Commission for TCLP-UK's Registration - Party Officials27April2025.docx. Would you be willing to fulfill either of these two roles for the Party, or know someone interested in the Constitution of the TCLP-UK to undertake this action?

Just to clarify, I am not a fundamentalist Republican in the purest sense of the term, but a Conservative Libertarian who wishes the King and Queen to be an intrinsic part of the solution to the total lack of civil justice in the United Kingdom because the values of truth and democracy are paid lip service. I call my movement Cultural Republicanism in which we all respect the Monarch and all the members of the Royal Family such that we maintain a hereditary Head of State. I wish to have a written Constitution so that the duties of the Head of State as it relates to the governance of the country is clearly visible to the population such that if the Monarch is failing in his Role there would be Referendum of the 18 plus population following every such recommendation from Parliament approved by the House of Lords to see if the same Monarch should continue or the next in line to the throne be invited to become the next Monarch. This will do much to restore faith in democracy and root out corruption.

There is a big difference between a Libertarian and a reConservative Libertarian philosophically.

Reform UK is more pragmatic under UK electoral democratic imperative that would keep the Socialists away from a second c Starmergedden regime.

By welcoming socialist just with another name? Farage is on track to be more statist than others. Just in other ways, economically he's already back nationalization. He's watered down every position. He's least worst atm and that isn't inspiring.

Conservatives under Bedenoch are too wet. Liberal Democrats are horrid. There is no choice but to elect Reform because they are the only semireasonable party. But a Written Constitution is a Red line that Conservative Libertarians under my Leadership must not cross. If you support the concept of a written Constitution for the United Kingdom I would immediately welcome you to Conservative Libertarians (UK) to play a role as I am 68 years of age and a pensioner.(Edited)

Too Wet how exactly? Kemi has drawn clear lines providing practical plans, Farage and Reform have no policies other than headline grabbing and those they back down from, not to mention the chaos of Tommy Robinson, Farage now being sued for libel and still no concrete policies. They can't keep 5MPs with momentum in their favour under control, run a Government? You must be joking.

We also have a written constitution, do you mean Codified? As in a single document? If so I would look to the work of Dom Raab and his Bill of Rights that was quashed by the Civil Service pre-COVID for many of my positions on this. I would look to actually tear up most EU legislation and pass a bill disapplying international conventions where applicable. There are too many conventions that are blatantly ignored and with lawfare on the rise, this would be strong backbone for values.

One thing for that has become clear is that these documents are not enough. We are seeing blatant judicial activism, defying public will, especially on immigration. Without judicial reform the legislative changes would be moot.

I am making significant progress towards getting nuts and bolts of the Movement of Conservative Libertarians in place but am stuck at the point of Registering The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) with the Electoral Commission for which I need an Official who can be named in the Form attached as the Treasurer of the Party and another official who can be named as the Nominating Officer for the Party: details as attached: From The Electoral Commission for TCLP-UK's Registration - Party Officials27April2025.docx. Would you be willing to fulfill either of these two roles for the Party, or know someone interested in the Constitution of the TCLP-UK to undertake this action?

I am making significant progress towards getting nuts and bolts of the Movement of Conservative Libertarians in place but am stuck at the point of Registering The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) with the Electoral Commission for which I need an Official who can be named in the Form attached as the Treasurer of the Party and another official who can be named as the Nominating Officer for the Party: details as attached: From The Electoral Commission for TCLP-UK's Registration - Party Officials27April2025.docx. Would you be willing to fulfill either of these two roles for the Party, or know someone interested in the Constitution of the TCLP-UK to undertake this action?

Application to register a political party in Great Britain

Abort application

All fields marked with a red asterisk must be completed.

Please note that there must be a minimum of two registered officers of the party.

Also, all the party officers must log in with their user accounts confirming their association with the party before the registration application can be submitted.

Party officers

The official roles of a political party are:

- The Party Leader – who leads the party
- The Party Treasurer – who will be responsible for your party's compliance with the financial rules
- The Nominating Officer – who will authorise candidates to stand for election and use the party name on ballot papers
- Campaigns officer (optional) – who carries out the treasurer's responsibilities for party spending at elections.

One person can take on one or more of the roles above, but the party must register at least two different people as party officers. If one person holds all the official roles, then the party must register someone as an additional officer.

Details of each of your party's officers should be entered using the "Add officer" button below. The official role(s) can then be assigned in the "Officer roles" section.

If you also wish to register separate accounting unit officers then please use the "Accounting units" screen

Sounds very interesting. I lean hard to the libertarian right on many issues but have some softer positions. I'd love to join if you'd have me

There is a big difference between a Libertarian and a Conservative Libertarian philosophically.

Reform UK is more pragmatic under UK electoral democratic imperative that would keep the Socialists away from a second Starmergedden regime.

By welcoming socialist just with another name? Farage is on track to be more statist than others. Just in other ways, economically he's already back nationalization. He's watered down every position. He's least worst atm and that isn't inspiring.

Conservatives under Bedenoch are too wet. Liberal Democrats are horrid. There is no choice but to elect Reform because they are the only semi-reasonable party. But a Written Constitution is a Red line that Conservative Libertarians under my Leadership must not cross. If you support the concept of a written Constitution for the United Kingdom I would immediately welcome you to Conservative Libertarians (UK) to play a role as I am 68 years of age and a pensioner.(Edited)

Too Wet how exactly? Kemi has drawn clear lines providing practical plans, Farage and Reform have no policies other than headline grabbing and those they back down from, not to mention the chaos of Tommy Robinson, Farage now being sued for libel and still no concrete policies.

They can't keep 5MPs with momentum in their favour under control, run a Government? You must be joking.

We also have a written constitution, do you mean Codified? As in a single document? If so I would look to the work of Dom Raab and his Bill of Rights that was quashed by the Civil Service pre-COVID for many of my positions on this. I would look to actually tear up most EU legislation and pass a bill disapplying international conventions where applicable. There are too many conventions that are blatantly ignored and with lawfare on the rise, this would be strong backbone for values.

One thing for that has become clear is that these documents are not enough. We are seeing blatant judicial activism, defying public will, especially on immigration. Without judicial reform the legislative changes would be moot.

The screenshot shows the 'Registration' page of the Electoral Commission's portal. The user is logged in as 'TCLP-UK'. The current entity is 'The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (GB)'. The page title is 'Application to register a political party in Great Britain'. There is an 'Abort application' button. A navigation menu on the left includes links like 'Home', 'My account', 'Political parties', 'The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (GB)', 'Continue registration', 'Register party in NI', 'Manage users', 'Register new', 'Third parties (Non-party campaigners)', 'Permitted participants (Referendum campaigners)', and 'Regulated donees'. The main content area has tabs for 'Party details', 'Party officers', 'Officer roles', 'Accounting units', 'Declaration of assets and liabilities', 'Declarations', and 'Submit'. A note states: 'All fields marked with a red asterisk must be completed. Please note that there must be a minimum of two registered officers of the party. Also, all the party officers must log in with their user accounts confirming their association with the party before the registration application can be submitted.' Below this is a section for 'Party officers' explaining the official roles: Party Leader, Party Treasurer, Nominating Officer, and Campaigns officer. It states that one person can take on multiple roles but at least two different people must be registered. A table lists the current registered officer: Shantanu Panigrahi, with email shantanupanigrahi@yahoo.com and a 'View' link. There is an 'Add officer' button. At the bottom, there is a 'Previous' button, a progress bar at 20%, and a 'Next' button. I would be willing however please allow me to just run this past a few people as I can't allow it to be in contrary to my work. I already stradel a lot of lines and so in the interests of saving time with me possibly having to remove myself, I will run this past a colleague who acts as my solicitor on all contracts. It will be 100% confidential and will only take a day. I will be able to answer either way on Monday

It is really nice to receive a response from you, especially since you are an aspiring Solicitor. I have been embroiled in legal matters for 27 years and find it fascinating in the United Kingdom in what I have learnt through trial and error, and having paid the price for my indulgences. But all that is behind me now. I have no attachments merely the desire to make knowledge available to all, for knowledge is the key to development not just in industry, arts and crafts but also government of a nation. That is why I came through a truth-path to create the Movement of Conservative Libertarians, that derives from my faith that a Personal God exists in our hearts, minds, soul, atman all variously described by different religions. If you like what I stand for (truth, justice and democracy) you are welcome to become a part of this movement and make the United Kingdom and the world a better place to live in for ourselves and our children and grandchildren. Hope to have a continuing dialogue with you. All my best wishes. Shantanu.
